Cast your mind back to childhood memories of fairytale dressing and a world of enchantment. Now it is your children's turn – and with the help of Lady V Couture's launch of the Princess Collection, their dreams can come true.

Handmade by an exceptional team of seamstresses, this 14-piece collection comprises meticulously considered and precisely hand-crafted dresses that are perfect for special occasions. Designed and made in London using only the finest materials, this charming range brings to life an essence of couture magic from a romantic era and carries your little ones to a realm of make-believe. Elegantly styled, Lady V Couture aims to transport your daughter to a fantastical world where she can wear a flamboyantly beautiful gown, truly fit for a princess. If ever there was a collection that made us want to trade our grown-up attire for that of a little girl's fairytale dream, then this is it. ■
